

ACT 126 – Child Abuse Recognition and Reporting Act

All school employees are required to complete the Pennsylvania Department of Education's Child Abuse Recognition and Reporting mandatory three-hour training.

This training session is offered online through the University of Pittsburgh, one of the PDE-approved training providers, at the following link: <https://www.reportabusepa.pitt.edu>.

After successfully completing the training, please print out a certificate of completion and provide a copy to the CCCTC's main office.

You may also submit a copy of the certificate if you have completed the training within the last five years.
